With the first meeting coming on May 16 at Copper Creek Golf and Country Club, Edward Tsui will send out a message to remind all members that they are all AUTOMATICALLY registered in all tournaments except with prior notice to either Edward Tsui or Johnny Hong that they cannot join in any specific games. And also to remind all members to pay up their membership fee to either Tak Chen or Johnny Hong before the season starts.

Same as last season, membership fee remains as $300. An incentive, as per last season, will also be given to members who take part more than 4 out of 5 tournaments.

5. Rain-check Certificate

Last season due to inclement weather while playing at King's Riding Golf and Country Club, all players had issued a rain-check certificate for redemption. This certificate will be redeemed at a cost of $45. Members who had surrendered their certificates have to pay the remaining balance if they play the game.

If members do not play the game at King's Riding Golf and Country Club, the Committee will refund $45 to them.

The Committee does not allow any transfer or replacement of the certificates.

6. Dinner Venue

The Committee had discussed various dinner venues after each game. Johnny Hong and Edward Tsui will ask members', like Eric Kan etc, or others' assistance to look for a desirable venue at a cost of $40/person.

7. Other Matters

- As usual, Edward Tsui is to work with Philip Wong to update the FGA web pages. Danny Ho will be responsible for taking photo in each tournament and send to website for all members' viewing.
- Tak Chen is to prepare 2018 Financial Statement and submit to Edward Tsui for posting in FGA website.
- Since there are some golf rules changes in this season, Danny Ho is to find out a website or link for all members to view and get familiar with.
